DETAILED ACTION

Title

The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 16-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 16 specifies the optical element of claim 1 to be a “concave spherical mirror”. This conflicts with claim 1 in that when the light for test arm cannot pass through the spherical mirror when in the (b)(i) configuration as claimed in claim 1.

Claim 18 specifies a translation of the “concave surface” which conflicts with claim 1 in that the optical element is secured to the beam-splitter, a Shack cube.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 2877

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2, 5, 14, 19, and 22-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Mantravadi(Optical Shop Testing, 1992).

Mantravadi discloses the Shack type interferometer comprising a laser source; objective optics; a Shack cube including a pin-hole spatial filter, beam-splitter, and a reference surface secured to the beam-splitter; test surface; and eye piece as detector. See figure 1.35.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 3, 4, 13, 15, and 27-44 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mantravadi(Optical Shop Testing, 1992).

Official notice is taken that intensity control of the test and reference beams in an interferometer is performed in order to equalize the intensity of the test and reference beams thus maximizing the signal-to-noise ratio. Further, astigmatism correction of an optical system is common due to aberrations in the system optics. See In re Malcom, 1942 C.D 589; 543 O.G. 440.

With regard to claims 3, 4, and 15; it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to equalize the intensity of the test and reference beams by using filters, partially reflective reference surfaces, of absorbing materials in order to maximize the signal-to-noise ration of the interference pattern formed.

Art Unit: 2877

With regard to claim 13; it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to correct for astigmatism in any optical system to compensate for the system optics.

Claims 27-44 are intended use for the optical Shack interferometer system and thus does not distinguish between the prior art.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 20-26 are allowed in view of the prior art of record by including the step of combining a cat's eye-type reflection for alignment.

Claims 6-12 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. The use of a phase shifter in a Shack interferometer is not found in the prior art of record.
